SUGAR SKULL MAKING
- A WAY TO REMEMBER

WHEN: OCTOBER 2, 2018
LOCATION: RIDGELINE HIGH SCHOOL
ADDRESS: 180 NORTH 300 WEST, MILLVILLE, UT
TIME: 4:30-7:30
GRADE LEVEL FOCUS: K-12, VISUAL ART & SOCIAL STUDIES
PRESENTER: NOEMI HERNANDEZ-BALCAZAR

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION:
Come and learn how to create unique Day of the Dead sugar skulls ("calaveras de azucar") with celebrated artist Noemi Hernandez-Balcazar. Noemi will guide you through a tradition that preserves the Mexican culture as well enriches and educates the community about the beauty of sugar skulls and their role in celebrating and memorializing the loved ones that have passed on. Noemi is able to inspire teachers and students no matter their level of talent or background. Participants will receive kits with skull molds, papel picado, lesson plans, and Day of the Dead resource materials.

REGISTER HERE:
https://tinyurl.com/y9gadq7q